PRESIDENT'S AWARD

SAC Anthony Salisbury
US Department of Homeland Security

In his current position as Special Agent in Charge for Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) Miami, Mr. Salisbury oversees the HSI criminal investigations portfolio and activities of more than 400 employees covering an area of responsibility from Ft. Pierce to Key West. These investigations cover narcotics trafficking, violent crime, commercial fraud, counter proliferations, money laundering, human smuggling, and trafficking, as well as the HSI intelligence program in South Florida.

Prior to this assignment, Mr. Salisbury served as the Deputy Special Agent in Charge (DSAC) for HSI Miami. As the DSAC, Mr. Salisbury oversaw the entire HSI investigative portfolio in Miami-Dade and Monroe Counties, working closely with our state and local partners on investigations involving narcotics trafficking, violent gangs, and weapons smuggling.

After serving as a Deputy United States Marshal, Mr. Salisbury joined the former United States Customs Service New York office in 2001, where he investigated narcotics trafficking at JFK Airport. While assigned to JFK, Mr. Salisbury initiated and led a multiagency task force to investigate violent crime in Brooklyn, NY.

After his assignment in New York, Mr. Salisbury also served in key leadership positions for HSI. He pursued trade-based money laundering investigations as the Section Chief for HSI's Trade Transparency Unit, notably establishing foreign trade transparency investigation units to combat trade-based money laundering. Following his headquarters assignment, Mr. Salisbury supervised the activities of five HSI offices throughout the Republic of Mexico as the Deputy Attaché in Mexico City. This overseas assignment covered the entire HSI investigative mission, including special interest alien smuggling and high value target apprehensions. Upon returning to the United States, Mr. Salisbury was selected as the Resident Agent in Charge for HSI St. Louis, where he oversaw the day-to-day investigative operations for 86 counties located in Missouri and Illinois, with an emphasis on violent crime, money laundering, narcotics trafficking and child exploitation investigations. Mr. Salisbury received an undergraduate degree from Missouri Western University in St. Joseph, MO.

THE SENATE AND GENERAL ASSEMBLY

STATE HOUSE, TRENTON, N.J.

JOINT LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION

By Senator VITALE, Assembly Speaker COUGHLIN and Assemblywoman LOPEZ

WHEREAS, The Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey are pleased to salute Anthony Salisbury, a highly esteemed member of his community, who will be honored by the National Police Defense Foundation during its Awards Gala on May 11, 2022, at Russo's on the Bay in Howard Beach, New York; and,

WHEREAS, The prestigious President's Award is being bestowed upon Anthony Salisbury in recognition of his extraordinary accomplishments; and,

WHEREAS, An illustrious graduate of Missouri Western University, Anthony Salisbury serves with distinction as Special Agent in Charge for Homeland Security Investigations in Miami, where he oversees more than four hundred employees and a criminal investigations portfolio that covers narcotics trafficking, violent crime, commercial fraud, counter proliferations, money laundering, and human smuggling and trafficking; and,

WHEREAS, Throughout his tenure with Homeland Security Investigations, or HSI, Anthony Salisbury has shared his considerable insight in numerous leadership positions, and he is especially appreciated for pursuing trade-based money laundering investigations as Section Chief of the Trade Transparency Unit and for his superb supervision of five HSI offices during an international assignment as the Deputy Attaché in Mexico City; and,

WHEREAS, Within all the spheres of his life and work, Anthony Salisbury has established a model to emulate and has set a standard of excellence toward which others might strive; and,

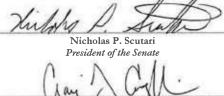

WHEREAS, It is altogether proper and fitting for this Legislature to acknowledge Anthony Salisbury and to praise him as an individual of strong character and uncommon determination; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

That this Legislature hereby commends Anthony Salisbury, pays tribute to his meritorious record of service, leadership, and commitment, and extends sincere best wishes for continued success in all his future endeavors; and,

Be It Further Resolved, That a duly authenticated copy of this resolution, signed by the Senate President and the Assembly Speaker and attested by the Senate Secretary and the Assembly Clerk, be transmitted to Anthony Salisbury.

Speaker of the General Assembly
